Thanksgiving - Let's Give Thanks

Thanksgiving Around the World

Thanksgiving is one of America's most cherished traditions — a time to gather with family and friends, reflect on what we're thankful for, and (of course!) enjoy plenty of delicious food. But did you know that other countries have their own versions of Thanksgiving too? Here are a few fun examples we thought you'd enjoy.

Germany, Austria & Switzerland

These countries celebrate Erntedankfest — the “harvest festival of thanks” — in early October. The day is filled with church services, music, dancing, and colorful parades. The feast features all kinds of roasted birds like geese, hens, and turkeys.

The Netherlands

Before the Pilgrims set sail for America, many lived for a decade in the Dutch city of Leiden. Every year on American Thanksgiving Day, the people of Leiden hold a simple service to honor those early Pilgrims — followed by coffee and cookies instead of turkey and stuffing.

Canada

Our neighbors to the north celebrate Thanksgiving on the second Monday in October. Their tradition began as early as 1578, when explorer Martin Frobisher gave thanks for surviving an Arctic voyage. Today, Canadians enjoy familiar favorites like turkey, pumpkin pie, family gatherings, and football.

No matter where or how it's celebrated, Thanksgiving is about gratitude, good food, and the people who make our lives meaningful.

From all of us on the Board — we wish you and your loved ones a warm, joyful Thanksgiving!

Just us, as we kick off the holiday season in Gulf Harbors. We will do a countdown and light up the beach, followed by Christmas music by all of our awesome local musicians -- Jeff Randall, Frank Calafiura, Valeria Romanoff and Mallory Moyer. There will be spiked eggnog, coffee, hot chocolate, and weather permitting, a bonfire! All we ask in return is that you bring some of your best Christmas baked goods to share that night.
